The Best Birthday Ever

It was a warm and sunny summer day when I got up, I immediately realised something extraordinary would happen today on my birthday. To be honest, I never organise a party, so nothing special usually happens, but somehow, I felt it would be different this time.

At 12 a.m. I went out ~~to walk~~ tired after receiving annual congratulations but still excited. What I saw near my house at first took me aback. Every single tree was smartly decorated and each had a poster saying "Happy Birthday! Congratulations!" on it. Suddenly my friends busted out laughing and ran from behind the trees to congratulate me. We decided to go backpacking to celebrate this wonderful date.

After having a lunch in a beautiful forest, we went further. Although, one of my friends knew the way, we managed to get lost. At the beginning this fact was quite funny, but as we kept on wandering, it became really scary. Accidentally we found a small village and its inhabitants told us that we were just going in circles all the time. Our kind rescuers gave us some food and, learning that I have a birthday today, organised a party. The most interesting thing about it was the game they taught us to play. The player had to jump across the fence surrounding the field. Not only was it interesting, but also the look of that vast field was breathtaking. I won that time despite being not good at sport. My friends even took an outstanding picture of me jumping.

In the evening we were given a lift ~~to our houses~~ and everyone was blissfully happy. Now this picture hangs on the wall.
