Surprise photo

"Hey, Kate!" came a loud voice from the fields. Surprised, I looked around but didn't notice anyone in the vicinity. "Who could it be?" I asked myself incredulously.

Then, the yell was repeated. I was astonished to recognize the voice of my fellow student, Rosaly. This girl was what you call a bookworm, so what she was doing in the fields was a complete mystery to me.

I turned in the direction from where I thought the yell came. I saw nobody. It seemed that ~~not~~ even the grass ^{didn't} moved. However, only a second later my eye caught a glimpse of something - or someone - standing to the left of me. Surely, it was Rosaly.

"Come here!" she ordered. I, not knowing what was going on, remained standing in the same spot. "Fire!" Rosaly yelled, ran up to me, snatched my handbag and then swiftly ran away! I was at a loss for words. "What had just happened?" was the only thought on my mind. But I quickly recovered from the shock and hopped over a fence, intending to chase Rosaly down and retrieve my bag.

Imagine my surprise when suddenly ^{came} a flash of light and ^{I was} a soft ^{heard} click! ^{sound of a camera} In that moment I realized that the whole purpose of this stunt was to take a good picture of me!
