That was one sunny day. The ~~sun~~ weather was good and the sun was shining. I woke up at about 7 o'clock in the morning with the only thought in my head: It is my wedding day! Yes! You heard it right! It was the day I'd been waiting all my life. That was ^{why} I got out of bed very quickly and went downstairs. Everybody were preparing for the ceremony. The atmosphere was ~~fantastic~~ ^{incredible}. Holiday was felt in the air. I saw my friends, who were helping each other to put on bridesmaid's dresses. There were my parents, going from corner to corner and checking whether everything was ready. In a ^{word} ~~word~~, I could not imagine that someone could be happier than ~~my~~ me at that moment.

Two ~~at~~ hours later everybody went outside. My cousins Ann and Greg, sister Simona and seventy guests were waiting ^{for} me and my father leading me to the altar.

I don't remember what I was feeling. The only thing I know, that my heart was beating. It was so loud, that my heart was ready to jump out.

I saw him. My man. The person, whom I'd call husband a few minutes later. ~~That was the moment when I realized that~~ I'd be a wife and wear a ring on my hand! That feeling was fantastic! what could be better?

But instead of smiling and going into my direction Jack (my fiance's name was Jack) started running away from me! My heart stopped! I couldn't believe my eyes. The ugly feeling was observing me! Jack turned out to be a coward!

The last thing I remember before I ~~that~~ faint was Jack's back when he jumped over the fence and disappeared.

I'm happily married now with five children. My husband is the best man in the world. His name is Mike. And now I'm very happy that Jack ran away from me!
