There were some pieces of wheat in our pockets and some scratches on our arms, but we were happy. Sweet memories of our last summer are still with us.

It happened in August when my brother Tom and I were on holiday in our grandmother's cottage. Most of our friends had already returned to town, so it was quite boring without them until one day a woman in our neighborhood asked us for help. Mrs. Jeffrey told us that her darling dog Sunny had ~~run~~ run away in the morning. She was extremely disappointed but we could imagine ourselves the true detectives at last. What blessing in disguise!

Tom and I made up our minds to ~~start~~ start searching in the nearest forest. Two ~~hour~~ hours later we became exhausted and were ready to give up but suddenly we heard howling from a wheat field to the left. It was surrounded by an old wooden fence. We ran there immediately and Tom jumped over the fence easily and quickly. I followed him but I am not as fast as my ~~to~~ brother that was why I had to enjoy his back with a beautiful view of summer field - green, yellow and a brown spot which was supposed to be a dog.

We ran and finally saw a little puppy - it wasn't Sunny. The dog sat and whined plaintively. I looked closer and saw that it had injured its paw. We didn't fulfilled our mission but we were really happy because we found such a cute puppy. We called it Whisky and went home. On the way back we found Sunny it was playing with other dogs not far from the house. Mrs. Jeffrey was pleased that her beloved pet was back home. So were we!

Wheaty is still with us, our true friend from a wheat field.

You know, life is filled of unexpected and it's amazing!
