~~A mistake because of the fear.~~

Funny mistake

Once it was a great day when the sun was shining brightly and the sky was absolutely cloudless. Jack, a 14 years old teenager, had weekends so he was thinking about his plans for that day. Suddenly he understood that he hadn't seen his granny for a long period of time and ^{now} really wanted to visit her. Mrs Smith lived in the nearest village.

The way to this village lay through the forest but Jack decided to choose another path. So he started his little trip. He was walking past the beautiful lakes and trees, enjoying the nature of his Motherland and then unexpectedly he saw a large field with beautiful flowers. One part of the field was separated by the fence but Jack did not pay attention at this fact. For a while he was attracted by a bright bug in the middle of the patch and he leaned down over the fence to go have a look. He had not ^{ever} seen such a beautiful bug before! Suddenly he felt someone or something staring at his back... He turned his head there and saw a big bull with ^{two} horns!!! Of course he was frightened to the death and without thinking rushed to the fence and jumped over it.

When Jack was behind the fence, he felt safe. He made up his mind to study his enemy in detail. Just imagine how foolish he felt when he understood that his enemy was only a cow! And of course it did not have any horns...
