My ' ,
We and my brother Nick were spending summer at our grandmother's country house. We were having a wonderful time swimming, sunbathing, playing games outdoors and eating locally grown vegetables and berries. I must admit that we were quite lazy those days and our granny wasn't pleased with our behaviour. One day she told us that the only way to get one more plate of strawberries (our favorite of all times!) was to do something special. Our task was to visit a local field and bring home the most beautiful flowers we could find. She also said that one of us who managed to do it faster would get more strawberries! It goes without saying that we were beyond excited and ran to the field immediately!

Nick was older than me and I soon noticed that he was ~~running~~ ^{moving} faster. He reached the field and got ready to jump over this special thing that fields are always surrounded with. I ~~was~~ thought that the game was over, but when Nick was jumping, trying to show me how cool he was, he suddenly fell down! I got an opportunity to win! While he was brushing off the dust, I managed to find gorgeous flowers and returned back home. Grandmother smiled at me, said 'Well done!' and gave me a great plate full of bright red strawberries! Oh God, it was

aw. na obopome

the best day of my life! Nick went a bit ~~mad~~ mad at first and was green with envy, but then I shared my delicious meat with him and we became best friends again.
