To: Mrs Galway, the Principal
From: Kate Smith, student.
Subject: language course.

The purpose of this report is to make an assessment of the English language course which took place recently in Moscow State University teaching.

Most of the attendants were extremely satisfied with the quality and teaching methods used. The presentation of the material was quite well-organised, made in an easy-to-capture manner. It was also possible to ask the teachers questions directly which pays tribute to the teaching quality.

Equipment

Although projectors and laptops were often used during the course to provide some video materials, there were quite a lot of delays because of the technical problems.

Textbooks

The textbooks provided were rather well-composed, adapted for different language levels and allowing to practice various language skills which contributed to the effectiveness of the course.

Dining facilities

The snacks and drinks, according to the majority of students appeared to be quite expensive and not enough for everybody.

Timetable.

The timetable of the course was extremely convenient for those who attend schools, however it did not always suit the students of universities.

Conclusion.

To sum up all the mentioned above, the quality of <sup>the</sup> course in general is fairly high and nearly everyone remained content with it. The teaching, textbooks and timetable ~~are~~ are quite satisfactory while the equipment and meals could have been better. ~~I would recommend to the~~ ~~organisers~~ ~~provided~~ ~~some more modern~~ ~~some pieces of~~ It would <sup>probably</sup> do good if the organisers improved the dining facilities and provided better technical facilities.
