~~A~~ Report on the subject of the overall course experience.

Mrs

To Mrs Galway,

The Principal

The goal of this report is to express my personal views of the course and give a few recommendations regarding improvements that can be possibly made.

To begin with, I would like to emphasize that the quality of teaching was astonishing. I especially loved the methods that ~~your~~ teachers used to explain grammar rules. Personally, I ~~struggled~~ struggled a lot with grammar in the past and your course helped me immensely. Furthermore, the use of modern technological equipment helped me to properly understand the material. I believe that this method is very innovative, ~~and can replace~~ Besides, it would be an understatement to say that the dining facilities were good. Everyone, including me, found them great. ~~Moreover~~ A ~~the~~ timetable was quite unusual from my point of view. I am not used to waking up early and it was hard to adapt ~~for~~ the new routine at first, but soon I managed to do it. ^{Although,} Other students seemed to like it, ~~though~~ However, there is something that I did not enjoy about the course that I would like to address. It is the variability of text books, ~~about~~ The major part of them were old and I ~~think~~ think that ~~the~~ ~~should~~ ~~be~~ ~~taken~~ ~~into~~ the exercises were very boring.

As for the suggestions, I have a few of them. First of all, I believe that your course ~~can~~ ~~re~~ should add internet tests – they help to revise material. Secondly, ~~it~~ more time should be devoted to speaking, ~~because~~ because practise is essential for learning, in my opinion.

~~Your~~ Yours ~~for~~ Sincerely,
