Mrs Galway,

It is my pleasure to give you my short report of the course. Let's start with the quality of teaching. To begin with, all teachers were polite and patient, which is really helpful ~~with~~ when working with those who has just started learning English. Teachers' speech was rather quick, however, I managed to understand almost everything. Moreover, the tasks were always clearly explained.

It was great that some modern technological equipment was used. We listened to records and even played some game, which ~~to~~ were helpful for remembering new words, collocations and useful phrases.

Another advantage of the course was the ~~number~~^{number} of books you have. Everyone ~~can~~^{could} find an interesting book to read.

Dining facilities deserve separate mention. The canteen looked so nice and the staff was always friendly. The food was great as well, ^A and I ran there to grab a bite to eat as soon as the ~~course~~^{class} was over.

The timetable of the course was very convenient. The class started at 4 p.m., which was great for me, because I have my classes at the university only in the morning. So I was able to rest after my classes, sometimes after a very tiring day I could even have a little nap, and then I went straight to the course.

As far as I'm concerned I didn't find any disadvantages in your course, except for uncomfortable chairs. I will recommend this course to all my friends.

With best wishes,

Liza Brown.
