Introduction

The aim of my report is to express my opinion on the principal English courses, which I recently attended.

Main part

The first point I would like to discuss is the studying process itself. The quality of teachers was on a very high level. During our classes we did not only do ~~exercises~~ routine exercises but play educational games and discuss some up-to-date problems and events. It helped us not to get tired of doing the same thing. Also, we used ~~a lot of~~ often used modern equipment which made our studies more interesting.

Next, there was a great variety of textbooks. Pupils were able to choose the one that was most suitable for ~~them~~ <sup>them</sup>. Their contents was very well-structured and helpful.

Furthermore, I would like to discuss dining facilities available there. The quality of food was ~~not so great~~ great but there was a lack of variety. There Also, all the dishes and drinks were ~~very~~ reasonably expensive. Moreover, the time table was inconvenient. All the classes started at 4-5 p.m. So it was hard for most of the ~~attendees~~ attendants to be on time.

uggestions

I would like to suggest ~~that~~ reducing the number of students per class. By doing so, teachers would be able to adapt to each student better, which would be beneficial.

Also, some improvements should be made to <sup>the</sup> catering.
Having a greater variety of food would make it more attractive to visitors, and the quality of dishes would be better.

Conclusion

In conclusion, I enjoyed studying with the British courses very much. I improved my English significantly, made a lot of new friends, and simply spent my spare time constructively.
I would recommend these courses to everyone who wants to be better at English.
