My report about English language course.

I've received your letter asking me to write a short report about the quality of your course. I dare say it was humiliating. You are still making me angry. In order to explain my state of mind, I'll tell you about the time I had spent studying at your course. You'll discover the reason of my attitude shortly. I'll start with the actual teaching

The quality of teaching

It should probably be called 'The quality of draining my money'. People who are responsible for creating this course are very cunning, I suppose. The first lesson I visited was for free. It was sort of a revising lesson telling me about forthcoming studies and different conditions. It was the only lesson that was pretty good. Then I realised that it was just an advertisement. But it was too late. After giving my money to head teacher I felt like I had been sentenced to fifty years of imprisonment. They were shouting at me and swearing. Nothing to add.

Equipment

There's nothing to say - the only thing that was modern was a loo. What a welcoming surprise!

Dining facilities

There was a creepy canteen filled with rats and cock roaches. It still gives me creeps. Disgusting!

Convenience of the time

It was very odd. We only had 2 lessons ~~at~~ a week lasting 2 hours. Still the teacher wasn't able to finish in time. What a shame!

A piece of advice

My only recommendation (piece of advice) is your course. You are terrible your course is disgusting.
I don't think you should try to improve it. It's pointless. ~~It~~ Try something else!
