Report for the Principal.

I attended your English language course recently. And I really enjoyed it! This is the best English course I have ever attended.

First of all, I really liked the quality of teaching. All the teachers are well educated and know their subjects perfectly. They use modern teaching methods which make the classes very interesting. Of course, it would be impossible without modern technological equipment. There are computers and interactive boards in every classroom so we can watch films and do some interesting exercises.

As for textbooks, I like them as well. Besides, I attended another English course last year and there we had other textbooks. Comparing these with your ^{books}, I like yours much more.

But there are things I don't really like such as dining facilities. The food you provide your students with isn't healthy at all. All these hamburgers and potato chips are damaging our health. I think you should give some fruit to the students instead of junk food.

As for ^{the} timetable, it is really convenient. All the students are asked about the time they would like to attend the course. And the dining facilities

be better!
