To Mrs Galway:

Advanced English classes.

Introduction:

The aim of this report is to give an assessment of a new English programme at the school of foreign languages. The information is based on personal views.

Teaching skills

The level of teachers' preparation is second to none. Every single moment of a class was thoroughly thought. Both teachers were very helpful and did not mind spending their after-class time for picking up on information which had not been clearly understood.

Modern technology:

In my point of view, computer games, videos, presentations and others were very useful for comprehending ^a complicated material in English grammar. Technology is up-to-date and consists mostly of "Apple" products, ^{that} which is great!

Text books:

All books given to students were included in the cost of six-week studying. They are numerous and filled with very valuable text, as "Reading", "Use of English" and "Essay" tasks.

Dining room and food:

The place for ~~food~~ having lunch and dinner is ^{chosen} ~~sited up~~ pretty well, although the food itself was not so great and ^{their} ~~had~~ nothing from vegetarian ^{one} ~~kitchen~~, as well as a sugar-free ~~no~~ food.

Schedule:

Evening classes fit me perfectly well. Most of the students enrolled in a programme, have jobs, so evening classes is a great idea.

recommendations:

On the basis of this information, I would like to suggest several changes. Please, revise your kitchen, as it does not satisfy people with health issues. The noise which comes from a cafe from the first floor is quite disturbing, so I would start thinking of a new room for classes. The group of students is quite crowded, that is why I would divide it in two groups.

Conclusion:

To sum up, overall experience is priceless, British teachers and Cambridge books, for example, still ^{there are} several things to think about.

Thank you.
