14.01.98

Dear diary,

I'm not much of a genius, it is what it is. To be honest it's a true victory if I ever get an "A" mark. So this time is incredibly hard for me, for I haven't been studying properly and ~~tomorrow~~ there'll be a test tomorrow, which will determine my entire life... But there's always an outcome, so I've prepared cheat sheets for the great day, having spent the whole evening writing them.

It's not my way of solving problems, a threat of detention is quite real too, but this time I just have to do it...

15.01. 98. It was awesome! This morning I woke up and it turned out I remembered all the information I'd written down. I ~~X~~ never felt so confident! So I didn't even need the cheat sheets. Lets hope results won't be bad.

16.01. 98 How can it be possible? "D"?! I've never written a test so bad even when I didn't learn anything! Exhausted and dissapointed is exactly what I feel... How will I explain it to parents? It seems to be the last time I ever write here... Bye, diary!

17.01. 98. Dear diary, magic is real! Today the principle herself told me about a terrific mistake. It turned out the results had been mixed up and pupils who got "D" (including me) actually got "A"! I can't believe! I guess today will be a celebration! I already imagine how ~~my~~ parents will proudly say something like: "Well done, darling!"

I'm happy as never!
