Marnie was feeling excited – it was finally the day of an important exam, the day he feared the most. He was not the smartest kid in his class – in fact, he was considered a rebel among his peers. He did not want to ruin such a reputation, so he decided to cheat on the test.

Marnie managed to sneak a cheat sheet in the auditorium. Actually, he was afraid of getting caught, and the terrific atmosphere of being watched by many teachers was not doing him any good. However, the excitement was so overwhelming that he stopped caring even about the consequences of his actions.

'Will I get a detention? Will I be expelled? Who cares?' – the boy thought, and so the test began. Marnie did not know.

anything about the subject, so he was seeking an opportunity to look at his cheat sheet. The time passed slowly. The boy was already going insane from his anxiety. 'Everybody is looking at me!' he ~~pondered~~ thought in panic.

Alas, as Marnie kept acting obviously suspicious, always looking around and shivering like a leaf in the wind, his cheat sheet fell off his knees and flew <sup>to the floor near</sup> to the kid who was sitting next to him. One of the teachers saw that and immediately told that boy to leave the auditorium. Marnie was saved. Though he did fail that exam.
