As you sow, so shall you reap

All children have to go to school. In each class there is at least one pupil, who does not enjoy this occupation at all. My story is devoted to such a lazy boy, named Billy, who wanted to be a success without making any efforts.

One day during ~~an ordinary~~ a usual lesson at school, the teacher announced: „Tomorrow we are to have a test day!” Billy resented bitterly and wondered: „Do we really have to do this? Naturally, the teacher’s answer was confirming.

Later that day, the boy remembered about the test. We can’t call him a dunce, because he was a capable boy and could get good marks. But as he was lazy, he started thinking about cheating the test. He was sure that his final idea to make a cheat sheet with ~~much~~ many tips & in it was really terrific.

The next day the test began. Billy had no clue how to get the cheat sheet, because the teacher was paying enormous attention to what the class was doing. Hardly had the boy got the cheat sheet, when the teacher noticed it and asked sadly: „What do you think you are doing there, Billy?“ So, the test was over for him. Moreover, he got a detention for an attempt to cheat.

That certainly was a lesson for the lazybones. From that day he decided to be hard-working, diligent and never play truant ever again.

~~Nevertheless in a few days he gave up his idea. By the end of the school he had poor knowledge. Soon, he became an alcoholic and his life was ~~some~~ passing ~~his~~ by him.~~
