- terrific

Write 220 - 250 words.

Not long time ago there happened a story, which is at first sight was very common for my high school journey. It is not a surprise that students play truant sometimes, just not to go to school. Of course, there is ~~are~~ terrific amount of reasons for that, and "spend a great time with friends" - is one of the most popular ones.

So this is what basically happened to one of my schoolmates Mark. He decided to visit the new cinema that had just opened. He called our teacher and told her that he had caught cold (because he didn't want to get a detention for his absence).

Little did he know, that on the third period our teacher decided to take us out to the new cinema. The exact same one. I was busy that day trying ~~to~~ to cheer up my another friend, who was caught with a cheat sheet and got an "F" for her test. That is why I had no time to text Mark to find out why he decided to "become sick" for a day.

An hour later, as expected, my teacher noticed Mark at the cinema. Everybody was ready to witness how Mark was going to get a detention. So when the teacher said: "Look, who decided to show up!" Mark looked surprisingly dense. But instead of detention our teacher gave him a ticket, saying that it was the last one. Mark's seat was next to the fifth grades!

I guess Mark never enjoyed the movie. We all know that fifth grades are notorious for being "a little bit" louder than everybody else.

I found the whole situation extremely funny and ~~now~~ now I am totally convinced that teachers have a sense of humour too!
