Writing

In your story:

2. Use direct and/or indirect speech;
3. Describe feelings and emotions;

(underline the word from the list when using it for the first time)

- terrific

Write 220 - 250 words.

It was absolutely terrific! How could I have been such a dunce?!

"Next Thursday I'm going to give you a test on English words. However, you won't have any possibility of using cheat sheets, as afterwards I'll ask <sup>questions</sup> ~~you~~ <sup>in person</sup> ~~face-to-face~~." As the teacher's announcement sounded, the situation seemed to be even worse as I ~~had~~ did know none of these words.

Actually, my classmates seemed to be as scared as I was and ~~deem~~ thoughts of playing truant began to come up one by one in my mind. ~~Being a~~ known for being hardy, I decided to take time studying for the test. Much though I studied, some problems with memorising words, like "detention", would not disappear.

Eventually, a good girl inside me started to lose a harsh battle against the bad one, so I made up my mind on playing truant. Having planned everything in details, I made up the following stories: my mother was assured everything was as usual and I went to school, my school friends were informed about my "illness". So, there I was, strolling by the river bank, enjoying the peace and quiet of the spring morning, while, ~~as~~ I thought, my class was struggling with the test. The cool breeze touched my face slightly and I closed my eyes in delight.

What a mistake! I tripped over something and ~~for~~ someone caught me. "Be careful! ~~the familiar voice~~ ~~wanted~~. You might not be on time for the test!"

It was my teacher who was late for the lesson. Now a low mark and loss of trust was guaranteed! 257
