Paper airplane

When Mae used to go to ^{an} elementary school, things were a bit different for her. No extremely complex homework, no difficult tests, and definitely no anger issues that could result in a detention. Overall, things worked out just fine for her, may I say, terrific.

However, when middle school started, everything changed. To say that Mae didn't manage is to say nothing. One day, Mae ~~she~~ got so upset over an assignment that she threw all her ^{not} papers out of the window in frustration. Only after that she realised that her notes for an upcoming test had been also in there. Mae was terrified - this meant that she would have to cheat. Cheating wasn't a strong side of this girl - ~~she~~ Mae was a bit dunce when it ^{came} ~~came~~ down to playing truant or being sneaky. Her homework teacher Mrs Bea once told her that if Mae would try to use a cheat sheet it would be so painfully obvious that the whole class would notice. Overall, Mae concluded, she was screamed.

~~Suddenly~~ On the next lesson Mae was ~~sitting down~~ while feeling desperate - she would never be able to prepare without her notes.
Suddenly, a paper airplane landed perfectly on the girl's desk. 'What's this?' Mae wondered ~~without~~ ~~but~~ ~~no~~ ~~body~~ ~~answered~~. When she looked closer she realised that it was actually one of her papers. Then, unexpectedly, more airplanes started ~~to~~ fly in. ~~So~~ Both surprised and grateful, Mae dashed to the window - but no one was there...
