It was a perfectly normal morning in a big golden city, right until a little girl intervined into her brother's work out sescion. The boy fined his bow with an uncanny move and looked at his sister.

- I know what we will do today! - happily said the girl, - We will conquer the terrific monsters of our land, just like our grandfather once did!

The boy sighted. The blue-skined people have indeed been a true curse, known for their ruthlessness and many bad doings. ~~Being~~ Being as young as the boy was, he nodded to his sister, and so their travel began.

It's been three days since they left their home and emerged into a forbidden place. They moved along the wasted lands in cold and darkness and by the end of the day fifth day the little boy had to carry his sister and still they ~~find~~ found no monsters. On the tenth day the boy grew tired.

- Maybe we have been looking for the wrong kind of monsters after all? - he whispered to his sister as he heard howling wolfs and lost consciosness.

The kids woke up to a heavy flower scent. - Just like home" - both of them thought and opened their eyes to find red eyes placed on a blue skin looking at them. It was a young woman, as they later discovered, that found them and brought them home with her own blue hands. And both of the kids thought: " We got back home in one piece: cold, drenched, but having learnt an important lesson".
